This magnificent three-story property combines to perfection the quality of antique wood with an impressive concrete structure and huge windows affording extensive sea views. The middle floor comprises a bright living/dining room with fitted kitchen, outside BBQ/grill area, small garden and swimming pool. The upper floor consists of two suites, including the master suite which is spacious and full of character. There are also two bedrooms on the lower floor with access to the garden, a double garage, staff quarters and utility room.
